

CONSOLIDATION OF MATERIALS. PARTS OF SPEECH

Task 1. Underline each parts of speech.

Adjective Look! He is sitting on an old chair and is snoring loudly.

Adverb Look! He is sitting on an old chair and is snoring loudly.

Conjunction Look! He is sitting on an old chair and is snoring loudly.

Interjection Look! He is sitting on an old chair and is snoring loudly.

Noun Look! He is sitting on an old chair and is snoring loudly.

Preposition Look! He is sitting on an old chair and is snoring loudly.

Pronoun Look! He is sitting on an old chair and is snoring loudly.

Verb Look! He is sitting on an old chair and is snoring loudly.

Task 2 .What part of speech are the highlighted words.

1. I like spring flowers.
2. Spring is the first season of the year.
3. The cat springs on the mouse.
4. The spring of my watch is broken.
5. The cat made a spring and caught the mouse.
6. Can you put a button on my coat?
7. I can't button my coat; it is too tight.
8. The child is going to cross the road.
9. If you can't write your name, put a cross (X).
10. Meet me at the cross-roads.
11. This is the Crown Prince of Ruritania.
12. He wears a crown on his head.
13. They crown the kings of England in Westminster Abbey.
14. I have half-a-crown in my pocket.
15. I haven't any doubt about the result.
16. I doubt whether you can do this work.
17. The boy is a very hard worker.
18. You must work hard.
19. That firm is a very good one.
20. He spoke in a firm voice.
21. The fly walked over the table and then began to fly round the room.
22. In Book 3 I will tell you a story of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table.
23. The pond is round.
24. The plane flew round the aerodrome.
25. Turn round and look at this picture.
26. I like to work in my garden; I do a lot of work there.
27. Get a hammer, and hammer in these nails.
28. He aimed a kick at the dog, but the dog was too quick.
29. "Don't kick the dog ," said John.

30. The ship has just come to land.
31. The passengers are going to land at Dover.
32. "There are land thieves and *water*thieves.:"
- (Shakespeare, Merchant of Venice.)
33. March is the third month of the year, May is the fifth.
34. "March winds, April showers,
Will bring *May*flowers.:" (Old Rhyme)
35. We watched the army march through the town.
36. The band played a quick march.
37. I may be able to come and see you soon.
38. I saw the flowers in Covent Garden Market.
39. It is a market day today.
40. They make cotton goods in Lancashire and market them all over the world.
41. I have some paint, some canvas and some paint brushers; if only I had enough brains I could paint a good picture.
42. I am going to paper my bedroom.
43. The boy wore a paper hat.
44. Did you read the paper this morning?
45. He gave a shout for help; and as soon as I heard him shout I ran to help him.
46. The wood is quite smooth.
47. I will try to smooth the difficulties out of your path.
48. It is beginning to snow now; the snow is quite thick.
49. The children will soon build a snow man.
50. Our telephone is out of order.
51. Telephone me if you want me; my address is in the telephone book.
52. What is the use of having a thing if you can't use it?
53. They paid us a visit last year; they visit us almost every year.
54. We always welcome their visit.
55. They gave me a very warm welcome in England.
56. There is some waste paper here.
57. Don't waste your time and money. You know the proverb, " Waste not, want not."
58. There is a lot of waste in a house where the wife is not a good housekeeper.
59. I wish I could go home. You will get your wish some day.
60. I hope you have understood this lesson now. If you haven't, there is no hope for you.